

PROCLAMATION

BY THE

Governor of the State of Texas

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME:

Pursuant to Article IV, Section 14, of the Texas Constitution, I, Rick Perry, Governor of Texas, do hereby disapprove of and veto House Bill No. 3441 as passed by the Seventy-Eighth Texas Legislature, Regular Session, because of the following objections:

Some of the provisions of House Bill No. 3441 have been accomplished in other legislation that I have signed. However, House Bill No. 3441 also would have the unintended consequence of not providing the State Preservation Board with access to funds currently used for emergencies or unexpected maintenance in and around the Capitol Complex.

Transfer of the Human Rights Commission to the Texas Workforce Commission already has been accomplished by House Bill No. 2933, and Senate Bill No. 1245 gives oversight of the Crime Victim's Institute to Sam Houston State University.

Since the Legislature by its adjournment has prevented the return of this bill, I am filing these objections in the office of the Secretary of State and giving notice thereof by this public proclamation according to the aforementioned constitutional provision.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have signed my name officially and caused the Seal of the State to be affixed hereto at Austin, this 20th day of June, 2003.

Rick Perry
